

Nurse Leader Certificate Program

Class of 2023

The Long Term Care Nurses Association (LTCNA) is offering an extensive certificate program to assist nurse managers and other nurse leaders in their operations. For more information, contact Ashley Caldwell at acaldwell@ihca.com or 800.252.8988.

About the Program

The LTCNA Nurse Leader Certificate Program includes educational sessions that are pertinent to nurses who are already in a leadership/management position or who are looking to become a leader/manager to help them succeed in their day-to-day operations. This program will include both in-person and virtual events. It will kick off with a Leadership Workshop taught by Mary Tellis Nayak on November 9 in Springfield and will conclude with a recognition ceremony for participants who complete all of the sessions at Ovarions: A Celebration of Long Term Care Nurses at the 73rd Annual IHCA Convention & Expo, September 11-14, 2023 in Springfield.

Who Should Participate

This program is for Directors of Nursing, nurse managers who may be new to this role or those who would like to enhance their knowledge. It would also be beneficial for those nurses who show leadership potential and are looking to advance their career. Sessions will help you improve your leadership skills as well as general knowledge needed to be an effective nurse manager.
